TENNESSEE STATE PARKS HENRY HORTON STATE PARK

Henry Horton State Park

Set in the rolling hills of Middle Tennessee, the 1,140-acre park is located on the former estate of the late Henry H. Horton, 36th governor of Tennessee. The park is located on the shores of the historic Duck River, the longest stretch of free flowing river in Tennessee. Remnants of a mill and bridge operated and used by the Wilhoite family for over a century may be seen today on the Wilhoite Mill Trail.

Henry Horton is well known for their championship 18-hole golf course, inn and cabins, campgrounds and trap and skeet range. The park has four hiking trails where you may see a variety of wildlife such as wild turkey, deer and many kinds of wildflowers. Summer months bring hours of family enjoyment whether it's swimming in our Olympic-sized pool, fishing along the Duck River, playing volleyball or basketball, or having a picnic, Henry Horton State Park has a lot to offer.

Inn and Conference Center

The Henry Horton Inn has 65 inn rooms and four suites. Rooms are air conditioned, carpeted, and equipped with TV and phone. The suites have a small refrigerator, microwave, toaster and coffee maker. The inn has three pet-friendly rooms. The hotel has handicap rooms available. Continental breakfast is served each morning from 7:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Restaurant

Henry Horton Restaurant is a family restaurant capable of seating 225 people and includes two private dining areas. It serves an outstanding southern cuisine buffet along with special catered meals and banquets. Special meals are available for pickup to include our scrumptious smoked turkey dinner to be picked up for Thanksgiving! Call (931) 364-2222 for more information.

Cabins

Seven cabins are located within walking distance of the hotel. There are 5 rustic and 2 deluxe. The rustic cabins have two bedrooms w/queen beds, one bath, full kitchen, living room, wood burning fireplaces (wood provided), air conditioning, TV, phones, charcoal grills outside. The deluxe cabins have two bedrooms and bathrooms, gas fireplace, central heat and air and the amenities of the rustic cabins. Check-in time is guaranteed 4:00 p.m. and check out time is 11:00 a.m. There is one pet-friendly cabin. Cabins are open year-round are reserved for at least a two-night minimum. One of the deluxe cabins is handicap accessible and is non-smoking. Major credit cards and checks are accepted.

Meeting Rooms

There are four meeting rooms in the inn with 2,000 sq. ft of space to accommodate from 15-90 people. The Conference Lodge with 3,150 sq. ft of meeting space is located in a separate building near the inn and is used for large meetings up to 300 people.

Camping

There are 74 campsites situated near the scenic Duck River. There are 18 sites recommended for tents only, and a large group site for primitive camping. The remaining 56 sites have tables, grills, water and electric hook-ups. Two bathhouses and a dump station for self-contained RVs serve campers. All campsites are on a first-come first-serve basis. The stay limit is two weeks. Pets are welcome, however, they must be kept on a leash.

Picnic Pavilions and Playgrounds

Horton has four picnic shelters that must be reserved. There is a small charge for three of them and no charge for the other. Three shelters hold from 35-90 people and three have built-in grills. They can be reserved one year in advance however they must be paid for in advance. Restrooms are convenient to all of the shelters. Several picnic tables and grills are located along the Duck River and throughout the park.

Hiking Trails

There are four easy-rated hiking trails at Henry Horton. The Hickory Ridge Loop is located near the campground and traverses habitats ranging from oak-hickory forest to unusual cedar glades. The Wilhoite Mill Trail follows the Duck River among second growth woods covering an early mill community. The Turkey Trail winds through rich woods and old fields. Also there is a handicapped accessible self-guided nature trail that identifies native trees of Middle Tennessee.

Fishing

A Tennessee Fishing License is required to fish on the Duck River. Local convenience stores sell the license as well as live bait.

Bike Trails

There is a paved road that is a little over a mile long that is good for bikers and walkers.

Skeet & Trap Range

Horton has a professional multi-field skeet and trap range to include crazy quail and a five stand available to individuals, groups and gun clubs. The skeet range includes a clubhouse with rental guns, ammunition, and other range supplies. A range manager is available for assistance and personal instruction.

Planned Programs

Rangers will provide programs for any group year-round upon request. During the summer months, programs covering a variety of natural and cultural history topics are scheduled weekly. Hayrides, campfires and many other fun and informative activities take place on the weekends. Canoeing the easy-flowing Duck River is great family fun. Scheduled day floats are conducted by park staff during the summer, or visitors may bring their own or rent canoes from a nearby outfitter.

Swimming

Swimming is free to inn and cabin guests. Campers pay a reduced fee. This is an outdoor Olympic-sized pool with lifeguards and a concession area. There is also a kiddie pool for children.

Golf Course

The golf course is an 18-hole championship par 72 course. It is only closed on winter holidays. The pro-shop has an excellent snack bar boasting the best hamburger in the area! The course also has a driving range. Rental clubs are available at the pro-shop. Call (931) 364-2319 to contact the pro shop.
